

Adult Coloring

Friday, January 15th 12-2 pm

Need to relax? Need to de-stress? Coloring is beneficial for adults too, it's not just for kids. It allows individuals to relax, exercise fine motor skills, and train the brain to focus. The best part is you don't need to color the picture completely only until you feel relaxed! We provide coloring utensils, coloring pages and a positive atmosphere. Come relax with us!

Displays

Interested in sharing a collection you have? The Algoma Public Library would be happy to share it! We have two locked cases, one in our children's case and one upstairs by our circulation desk. If you are interested contact Katie for more information. Previous displays include: snow globes, model horses, travel pictures and souvenirs, Packer memorabilia, G.I. Joes and Ragged Ann and Andy dolls.

Anime Club

Let It Snow! Craft with Marshmallows!

Thursday, January 14th at 5:30-6:30 pm

Parents and children are invited to come in and craft with marshmallows. We'll craft with marshmallows while enjoying a nice hot cup of hot chocolate!

Baby Storytime

Held on every Tuesday at 10 am for Babies and toddlers birth through 2 years old. Have older siblings? Bring them along too! Baby storytime is a chance to share books and songs with your little ones. Babies coo, they cuddle, and they enjoy books. Babies love to observe and learn a great deal about language before they ever say a word. That's why it is so important to read to your young children.

Story Hour

No Story Hour Friday, January 1st we are closed for New Year's Day.

Begins at 10 am every Friday in the library. Come join us as we sing songs, perform fingerplays, read stories and craft together!

Ronald Daggett Paintings

The Algoma Public Library has been fortunate to be the recipient of original watercolor paintings by Professor Ronald Daggett, a frequent visitor to the Algoma area. Mr. Daggett's paintings of waterfronts and fishing tugs record the history of Algoma and Kewaunee County from the 1970's and '80's. A collection of Mr. Daggett's paintings has been donated to the Algoma Public Library and is on permanent display in the library. These unique and beautiful paintings are snapshots of Algoma's vanishing history. We thank the Daggett family for thinking of our community and presenting the library with an opportunity to preserve the beauty and heritage of the Algoma lakeshore for generations to come.

Algoma Library Welcomes New Library Director

Hello Everyone! My name is Amanda Burns and I am the new Director of the Algoma Public Library. I come to you after 3 1/2 years as the Director in Suring, WI. I have my Masters of Library and Information Science from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. I hold a bachelor's of arts in Theatre, Communications, and Digital Media from Carthage College in Kenosha, WI and I grew up in Oconto Falls. I am honored to be your new director and know that I have wonderfully big shoes to fill. I hope you will stop into the library and introduce yourself to me. I look forward to meeting everyone.
