October 2015

Baby Storytime begins on October 13th

Held on Tuesdays at 10 am for Babies and toddlers birth through 2 years old. Have older siblings? Bring them along too!

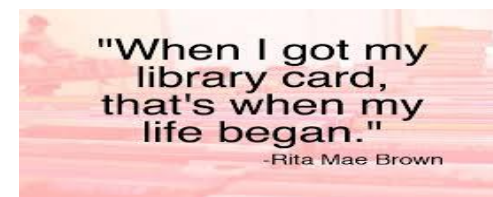

Baby storytime is a chance to share books and songs with your little ones. Babies coo, they uddle, and they enjoy books. Babies love to observe and learn a great deal about language before they ever say a word. That's why it is so important to read to your young children.

Story Hour begins on October 16th

Begins at 10 am every Friday in the Library. Come join us as we sing songs, perform fingerplays, read stories and craft together!

Internet Hour

Internet hour is held on the second Tuesday of each month from 11 am- 12 pm for those with questions about email, browsing the internet and more.

Banned Books Week: Sept. 27th- Oct. 3rd

Annual event celebrating the freedom to read. This event highlights the value of free and open access to information. Banned Books Week brings together the entire community in an effort to support the freedom read.

Event: Banned Books Week Bingo!
Adults Thursday, Oct. 1st at 1 pm

T.A.B (Teen Advisory Board)

Book Clubs!

Book Worms meets on Tuesday, Oct. 20th at 1 pm and 5 pm.

This month we are reading Their Eyes Were Watching God by Zora Neale Hurston. Cookies and refreshments will be provided.

Lasting Literature Book Club meets on Wednesday, November 18th at 5 pm. They will be reading and discussing The Bear by William Faulkner.

5th Graders: This month we are reading The Mostly True Adventures of Homer P. Figg by Rodman Philbrick. We will be meeting on October 26th at 3:15 pm to discuss the book. Copies are available at the circulation desk.

October is Archives Month

On Wednesday, Oct. 28th at 1 pm Virginia Feld Johnson will present an introduction to Algoma library's online newspaper archives, 1873-1924, and demonstrate search techniques using this valuable genealogical resource. The Algoma newspapers from this time period open a window to local history and provide a wealth of information for educational research and family history, are key-word accessible and free for anyone to enjoy.

The online archives are made possible by a generous donation in memory of Maynard and Clarice Feld, and in a partnership with the Algoma School District acting as our host server.

Reading Education Assistance Dog

Come read with Trooper, a Reading Education

Assistance Dog. He will be visiting the library on Wednesday, Oct. 21st at 4-5 pm. Trooper will be dressed in his Halloween costume! R.E.A.D uses registered therapy animals that have been trained and tested for health, safety, appropriate skills and temperament. The animals are ideal reading companions because they listen attentively, do not judge, laugh or criticize. Parents and children are encouraged to meet Trooper and read to him.

1000 Books before Kindergarten

Don't forget to sign your child up. Sign up at the circulation desk. For each 100 books read your child gets free stickers, after 1000 your child gets a free book.

Finished reading 1000 books? That's ok, read another 1000 and get stickers and another free book.

Immunizations

Wednesday, Oct. 21st 3-6 pm. Please call and make an appointment with the Kewaunee Public Health Nurse at (920) 388-7160.
