

Adult Coloring

Thursday, February 11th
11-2 pm

Need to relax? Need to de-stress? Coloring is beneficial for adults too, it's not just for kids. It allows individuals to relax, exercise fine motor skills, and train the brain to focus. The best part is you don't need to color the picture completely only until you feel relaxed! We provide coloring utensils, coloring pages and a positive atmosphere. Come relax with us!

Displays

Interested in sharing a collection you have? The Algoma Public Library would be happy to share it! We have two locked cases, one in our children's case and one upstairs by our circulation desk. If you are interested contact Katie for more information. Previous displays include: snow globes, model horses, travel pictures and souvenirs, Packer memorabilia, G.I. Joes and Ragged Ann and Andy dolls.

Baby Storytime

Held on every Tuesday at 10 am for Babies and toddlers birth through 2 years old. Have older siblings? Bring them along too! Baby storytime is a chance to share books and songs with your little ones. Babies coo, they cuddle, and they enjoy books. Babies love to observe and learn a great deal about language before they ever say a word. That's why it is so important to read to your young children.

Story Hour

No Story Hour on Friday, February 12th. Begins at 10 am every Friday in the library. Come join us as we sing songs, perform fingerplays, read stories and craft together!
