

Book Corner News

The Book Corner opened its doors six years ago, in June of 2017. We've come a long way and now have a firmly established used bookstore in downtown Algoma. We thank you for your support and patronage in making this happen.

Father's Day is June 18. Why not get Dad a book for this occasion? The Book Corner has a variety of books, and we're certain you'll find something he'll like.

The Book Corner, located at 401 Third Street, is open Fridays and Saturdays from 11am - 3pm. All proceeds benefit the Algoma Public Library.

Memory Café- Wed. June 14th at 10 am

Juneteenth Kit

Juneteenth is a holiday celebrated on June 19 to commemorate the emancipation of enslaved people in the US. The holiday was first celebrated in Texas, where on that date in 1865, in the aftermath of the Civil War, enslaved people were declared free under the terms of the 1862 Emancipation Proclamation. This educational kit revolving around learning about the importance of Juneteenth will be available for pick-up starting Mon. June 19th at 10 am. Supplies will be limited. This is geared towards late elementary schoolers to early high schoolers.

Dinosaur Dimensions

Tues., June 20th at 1 pm

Dinosaur Dimensions brings out a show of Jurassic proportions as the crowd will get to witness realistic animatronic puppet dinosaurs in a themed 40–45-minute show that gets the kids involved! Different dinosaur species will be presented - each with different features and facts. The dinosaurs are all nice, even though a few of them might seem scary to the smaller kids. Following the program, families will get the chance to come up and meet/greet one of the dinosaurs up close and personal.

This program is free and open to all at the Algoma Elementary School Gym located at 514 Fremont St, Algoma. For more information, call the library at 920-487-2295.
